

ANZFSS SA BRANCH SCHOLARSHIP TO ANZFSS NATIONAL AGM

The ANZFSS national AGM is due to be held at Vibe Hotel, Hobart on the evening of Thursday 19th November 2026.

The National ANZFSS Committee are encouraging research students or recently appointed practitioners from each branch to attend and present a short summary of their research or activities at a Mini Symposium and Annual General Meeting of the ANZFSS.

The SA Branch will provide a scholarship to cover flights to and from Hobart, transfer to and from the airport, dinner and AGM tickets, and accommodation for Thursday night.

For the purposes of this scholarship, a recently appointed practitioner is a person who has been working in a forensic discipline for less than 3 years. This may be negotiated with the ANZFSS SA Branch committee depending on the individual's circumstances.

Please complete the following and send to the ANZFSS SA Branch:
sabranch@anzfss.org by 19 October 2026 (11:59 PM, South Australia time).

The successful recipient will be contacted and arrangements made to attend the AGM.

ANZFSS SA BRANCH SCHOLARSHIP TO ANZFSS NATIONAL AGM

Expression of Interest Form

In addition to the information specified below, the applicant should attach a CV of up to 3 pages which details their current position/studies, previous positions/studies and relevant qualifications. The CV should include details of the duties undertaken in these roles and any other information which may be relevant to this expression of interest.

If you have any questions relating to this application, please contact sabran@anzfss.org.

Name:

Q1. Why would you like to attend the National ANZFSS AGM? (max. 150 words)

Q2. Please give a brief summary of the work you intend to present at the AGM (max. 100 words)

Q3. How long have you been a member of ANZFSS?

Q4. Outline your activity and engagement with ANZFSS (for example number of meetings attended, symposia attended, presentations given, committee service etc). (max. 100 words)

By submitting this application I am declaring the following:

- 1) If selected for this award, I am prepared to travel to Hobart and give a 10–15-minute presentation at the AGM on Thursday 19 November.*
- 2) I am prepared to present a short 5-10 minute report on this trip during an ANZFSS-SA meeting.*
- 3) The application has been prepared by myself and has not used any artificial intelligence in its preparation (including the attached CV).*
- 4) The ANZFSS SA Branch will cover airfare (economy return fare Adelaide to Hobart), travel insurance, ground transport to and from Hobart airport, one night accommodation at a hotel agreed to by ANZFSS-SA and AGM dinner and breakfast. I acknowledge that I will cover any additional expenses beyond those covered by ANZFSS.*

This form should be signed by the individual and emailed to sabranh@anzfss.org (noting that simply typing your name is not sufficient). A CV of up to 3 pages should also be attached.

Signature:

Date: